

Airport Transit Visa

Last update: July 2022

General information:

- If the applicant flies via Germany, to get to the final destination, an airport transit visa (A) might be needed. The German Embassy in Windhoek also represents various other Schengen countries, please check our website for the updated list.
- The vast majority of travelers (for example Namibian citizen) do not need a visa when air transiting through Germany. Entry clearance requirements depend on the citizenship, the resident status of the applicant and the country where the stopover occurs.
- Please visit the Website of the German Foreign Ministry for additional information.
- Important note: If there is a need to enter the Schengen area (for example to change terminals, pick-up the luggage or if the destination is within the Schengen area), a Schengen Visa (C) is required (please see checklist for a Tourism visa).
- Please note that the application has to be submitted personally and only by appointment at the German Embassy. It cannot be submitted earlier than 6 months before the date of travel.
- The application will usually be processed within 15 days upon submission of the complete visa application. Therefore, applicants are strongly encouraged to apply well in advance of their actual travel dates.
- If the travel date is imminent or lies within two weeks of the application date, please postpone the trip. In general, the German Embassy is not able to expedite the process.
- The visa application fee is the equivalent of EUR 80.00 in NAD. This non-refundable fee is payable in cash or by credit card when applying.
- Each applicant must submit a separate and complete set of the documents.
- Original documents must be submitted with 1 simple copy.
- Further documentation may be requested in each individual case.
- Please see our website for additional information: Website of the German Embassy Windhoek \(www.windhoek.diplo.de\)
