

Visiting Family/Friends

General Information:

- According to the Schengen Visa Code, the German Embassy in Namibia is responsible for processing your application if your main destination is Germany, Netherlands, Belgium, Luxemburg, France, Malta, Switzerland and Hungary.
- Duly completed application forms may be submitted six months prior to your intended travel date. Especially when traveling in the high season between May and September, you are strongly encouraged to apply well in advance of their actual travel dates. This will help ensuring a smooth organization of your trip.
- It may take an average of 15 days to process your Schengen visa application at the German Embassy.
- The relevant information pertaining to the application process can be found on the website of the Embassy: www.windhoek.diplo.de
- The German Embassy reserves the right to ask for additional documentation at any time during the processing of the application whenever deemed necessary.
- Documentation sent via fax or e-mail, which has not been explicitly requested, will not be allocated to an application.

Submission of incomplete or false documentation/incorrect information

Submission of incomplete documentation or of false documentation/incorrect information will most likely result in a refusal or - in case of the latter - even a travel ban to Germany or other Schengen States.

For official use only

I was advised that my application, submitted on _____ with the intended travel date _____, was incomplete and/or knowingly submitted on short notice, as the processing time for a visa can take up to 15 working days. After being informed that the decision based on the beforementioned may be taken to my disadvantage, I choose one of the following options:

- I refrain from submitting my visa application
- I will not submit additional documents
- I submit my visa application and will complete the requested documents latest on or before _____

Windhoek, _____
