

Visa for family members of EU citizens

This kind of visa is only available if you meet the following criteria

- the spouse, the partner in life or a relative in the direct descending line of an EU citizen or
- a relative in the direct descending line of the spouse or partner in life of an EU citizen and are under 21 years of age or
- a relative in the direct ascending and direct descending line of an EU citizen or of his/her spouse or partner in life, for whom these persons or their spouses or partners in life provide maintenance and
- the relevant EU citizen lives in or would like to accompany you to an EU country whose citizenship he/she does not possess

Examples:

- you are married to a German and you would like to travel to the Netherlands
→ ✓ Visa for family members of EU citizens is possible, as your spouse is not Dutch.
- you are the child of a Hungarian, but are not Hungarian yourself and you would like to travel to Germany
→ ✓ Visa for family members of EU citizens is possible, as your parent is not German
- you are married to a German and you would like to travel to Germany
→ ✗ Visa for family members of EU citizens is not possible as your spouse is German. Hence, the checklist "Visiting Family-Friends" is applicable.
- you are the child of a Belgian, but are not Belgian yourself and you would like to travel to Belgium
→ ✗ Visa for family members of EU citizens is not possible as your parent is Belgian. Hence, the checklist "Visiting Family-Friends" is applicable.

General Information:

- According to the Schengen Visa Code, the German Embassy in Namibia is responsible for processing your application if your main destination is Germany, Netherlands, Belgium, Luxembourg, Malta, Switzerland and Hungary.
- Duly completed application forms may be submitted six months prior to your intended travel date. You are strongly encouraged to apply well in advance of the actual travel dates. This will help ensuring a smooth organization of your trip.
- It can take up to 15 working days to process your Schengen visa application at the German Embassy. Any courier transit times should be added to the 15 days.
- The relevant information pertaining to the application process can be found on the website of the Embassy: www.windhoek.diplo.de
- The German Embassy reserves the right to ask for additional documentation at any time during the processing of the application.
- Documentation sent via e-mail, which has not been explicitly requested, will not be allocated to an application.
- The fee for the visa application will have to be paid at the time of your appointment with TLS.

Submission of incomplete or false documentation/incorrect information

Submission of incomplete documentation or of false documentation/incorrect information will most likely result in a refusal or - in case of the latter - even a travel ban to Germany or other Schengen States.

I was advised that my application, submitted on _____ with the intended travel date _____, was incomplete and/or knowingly submitted on short notice, as the processing time for a visa can take up to 15 working days. After being informed that the outcome of my visa application may be negative, I choose one of the following options:

- I refrain from submitting my visa application
- I will not submit additional documents
- I submit my visa application and will complete the requested documents by 15:30 today
